

FROM THE ONTARIO
MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE

Kindred Spirits Orchestra

On behalf of the McGuinty government, I am pleased to welcome orchestra members and patrons to the 2011 Kindred Spirits Orchestra season.

As Minister of Tourism and Culture, I have the privilege of seeing how music enriches the lives of Ontarians. The arts help us build strong, vibrant and liveable communities across Ontario.

Kindred Spirits Orchestra plays an important role in promoting arts and culture in Ontario through their outstanding musical performances. Our government appreciates the Orchestra's commitment to exciting entertainment that inspires classical music lovers of all ages.

I commend the talented crew, staff and performers for their hard work and dedication.

Please accept my best wishes for a most successful 2011 season.

Yours truly,

Michael Chan
Minister
